

Sadhu Nag Mahashay in the eyes of Scholars

Sadhu Nag Mahashay in the eye of Sri Ramakrishna:

Sri Thakur could understand in his first meeting that Sadhu Nag Mahashay was burning Fire. So, showing Sadhu Nag Mahashay to Suresh Sri Ramakrishna said-

"Look at fire, the boy is burning fire."

Sadhu Nag Mahashay was fire in true sense. Sadhu Nag Mahashay was mentally ready to take the disease of Sri Thakur in his own body. At that time Thakur refused and said-

"I know that you can cure me."

Since then Thakur could feel that Sadhu Nag Mahashay was his true devotee.

Sadhu Nag Mahashay in the eye of Mother Sarada Devi:

Srima Sarada Devi loved Sadhu Nag Mahashay as her son. At Belur math Mother fed Sadhu Nag Mahashay sweetmeat and betel leaf with her own hand. One day Mother was cleaning the pictures of Sri Thakur, Actor Girish Chandra Ghosh and Sadhu Nag Mahashay. She was decorating them with, sandalwood paste. Showing the picture of Sadhu Nag Mahashay she said to a devotee

"Many devotees come and go but I have never seen one like him."

This comment of Sri Ma Sarada Devi proved that she had deep affection for Sadhu Nag Mahashay.

Sadhu Nag Mahashay in the eye of Swami Vivekananda:

World famous religious preacher Swami Vivekananda highly respected, Sadhu Nag Mahashay. Sadhu Nag Mahashay used to offer Pranama to Swamiji, Swamiji also used to do the same. Swamiji had very high regard for Sadhu Nag Mahashay. Swamiji used to feel proud for, Sadhu Nag Mahashay. Swamiji said to Upendra Chandra Dhar (Sarail, Tripura) while a book written by Sri Sarat Chandra Chakroborti named 'Sadhu Nag Mahashay'-

"What does Sarat know?" What will he write about him in book? I am surprised that he defined him as Sadhu. He is more than 'Avater.' A sand-grain of his birthplace Deovog can produce hundreds of Avatars."

Swamiji said about Sadhu Nag Mahashay to one of his disciples-

"What is your worry? You could associate with such a great man Meeting such great men needs devotion. Swamiji wrote in a letter-

"I have traveled the whole world, but have never seen a great man like Sadhu Nag Mahashay. There are high and low tides in oceans. But I have never seen and change in Sadhu Nag Mahashay."

Swamiji said before his visit to Dhaka-

"I have no intention to make speech there. It is not necessary. Sadhu Nag Mahashay illuminated that country. What shall I do more? Thought of the whole country becomes refined with the thought of such a great man."

These comments reflect Swamiji's respect for Sadhu Nag Mahashay.

Sadhu Nag Mahashay in the eye of Sarat Chandra:

Sadhu Nag Mahashay was the path finder of religious life of Sarat Babu. Sarat Babu wrote in his book 'Sadhu Nag Mahashay'-

"His divine character was the first path in my religious life. His humbleness was more precise than that of mother earth. Despite being a house holder he was respected by the saints. His sacrifice, devotion and spirit were enormous....."

From these comments it is understood that Sarat Babu respected him so much.
